THE WORLD OF SOCIETY.

Newport.

Mrs. McKay has sailed for Europe with her young sons.

Senator Hale and family left town yes

Senator and Mrs. Morrill have gone

erday for their home in Maine.

Open Half Day Tomorrow.

As we said a few days ago, the "all-around goodness" of the store was never so conspicuous as just now. Every department is filled with the brightest and best of its several lines. The store ought really be clowded daily from morning till night. Great Suit Selling.

The location of the Suit Parlors is secluded and the styles and patterns 'exclusive.' About the biggest money's worth of Suits in the city today are these:

-Those Fine Tan Covert Cloth Suits at $9.
-Those English Tweed Suits at $10. - Those All-wool British Suits, true blue and black, at $10.

Those Fancy Duck Suits at $2.25.

Those Plain White Duck Suits at $2.50. Those Colored Duck Sults, mostly tan ground, with red and blue spots, with piping of the rame, at $3.50.
 Those Figured Lawa Suits at $5.
 Those Cotton Initiations of Tan Covert Cloth Suits at $4, $5 and $5.50.

Abundance of other Suits, in Dimities,

Waists and Skirts.

There may be, but we doubt that we have a single Waist in stock that can be had elsewhere. "Exclusiveness" is our strongest point. We have never attempted to make this "the chenpest" store in Washington.
